Heartstrings & Honky Tonks series returns in 2025 with another series of incredible shows

Nashville. Music City. Home to legendary music venues like the Grand Ole Opry House, The Ryman Auditorium, Tootsies, and of course the BlueBird Cafe. As a songwriter each one of these world-famous establishments holds a special place in the heart of every songwriter in the world. They are goals, steppingstones, and milestones in the pursuit of the ultimate goal of sharing music with the world and hearing it live on the radio.

After an inaugural sold out season in 2024, the Heartstrings & Honky Tonks series returns in 2025 with another series of incredible shows that will allow both the artists and audience to be part of something truly special as the performances are broadcast live on 840 AM radio. These events will be hosted by CFCW's own Jackie Rae and will take place in theaters in Sherwood Park, Fort Saskatchewan, St. Albert, Camrose Alberta, and Bonnyville as we continue to celebrate more than 70 years of CFCW radio.

This historic evening of live music will be set in a traditional Nashville style songwriters round, often also called a guitar pull. These sessions will feature incredible songwriters as they share their stories and take the audience on an emotional journey singing both songs they have written, performed the way they were originally intended, along with songs that hold a special place in their own heart.

Once again award winning and platinum selling co-writers, and longtime friends Dan Davidson and Clayton Bellamy will lead most of these events as they bring their Nashville experiences north of the border.

Along with Dan & Clayton each night will feature additional songwriters in each city including some surprise and local guests. Rounding out the entire roster of artists slated for these shows are Aaron Goodvin, Duane Steele, George Fox, Hailey Benedict, Jake Mathews, Kelsi Mayne, Kalsey Kulyk, Michelle Wright, Morgan Klaiber, Nice Horse and Patricia Conroy with special guest appearances by local artists Calle-Rae & Hayzley Rivard, Delta Sweet, Jessie Bird, Kory Wlos & Olivia Rose.

Details can be found at www.cfcw.com and www.heartstringsandhonkytonks.com/

Check individual show listings for the confirmed artists lineup. Artist Line Up Subject to Change.

Why butchers swear by this steak cut

Rachel Perlmutter, TheKitchn.com

If I want to know the best vegetables to buy at the farmers market (and I do, desperately!), I'm going to ask a farmer. But if I want to know what cut of steak I'm sleeping on, I'm asking my butcher.

Hanger steak, also known as butcher's steak, used to be a sort of industry secret. The cut comes from the plate primal, which is the part of the cow directly below the ribs. The name "butcher's steak" came about because there is only one hanger steak per cow, and butchers often kept it for themselves. This is because while it's extremely tender (hanger is also referred to as "hanging tenderloin!"), there is an inedible center seam that prevents the steak from being served whole. All this to say, it's not the cutest steak before you slice it.

Once you trim that center seam (which, by the way, is pretty easy!), the steak is easy to cook and a delight to eat. The flavor and texture is very similar to the more-common flank steak, but hanger is more tender. While hanger is much more widely available now than it used to be, it's still a great value for quality if you're willing to put in just a teeny bit of trimming effort. If you have some extra time, a simple marinade will only further elevate the flavor.

Why you'll love it

An affordable cut. For the price, hanger steak is one of the most tender, flavorful steaks you can buy.

The steak is delicious, with or without a marinade. And if you want to take your dinner to the next level, just set aside an hour for marinating the steak in a simple mix of citrus juice, olive oil, and garlic.

Key ingredients for cooking hanger steak

Hanger steak: Resembling flank steak in flavor and texture, you'll know it's hanger steak by the signature "seam" membrane running lengthwise through the center.

Salt: Season the outside of the steak generously with kosher salt because you can't season the inside!

Oil: Use an oil with a higher smoke point like grapeseed or vegetable oil to get the best sear.

Marinade: If you have the time, a marinade of lemon or lime juice, olive oil, and garlic will add an extra layer of flavor.

What to serve with hanger steak

Shoestring Fries, Iceberg Wedge Salad, Dauphinoise Potatoes, Roasted Broccoli, Creamed Spinach & Sautéed Kale

Hanger Steak (Serves 4)

- 1 (1- to 1 1/2-pound) hanger steak
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1 tablespoon neutral oil, such as grapeseed, safflower, or canola

For the optional marinade:

- 2 tablespoons lemon juice, lime juice, or apple cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 3 cloves garlic, finely grated or pressed in a garlic press

1. Cut the center seam from 1 (1- to 1 1/2-pound) hanger steak, leaving you with two long pieces of steak. Halve each piece crosswise to create four pieces. Season all over with 1 teaspoon kosher salt.
2. If marinating, place the steaks in a shallow dish, such as a 9-by-13-inch baking dish. Whisk 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons olive oil, and 3 grated garlic cloves together in a small bowl. Pour over the steak and rub the marinade into the steaks. Flip the steaks once or twice in the dish to coat. Cover the baking dish and marinate for 1 hour at room temperature or up to 24 hours in the refrigerator (remove from the fridge 30 minutes before cooking). Flip the steaks occasionally if you happen to think about it.
3. Remove the steaks from the marinade and shake off any excess marinade. Pat dry with paper towels.
4. Heat a large cast iron skillet over medium-high heat until it starts slightly smoking. Add 1 tablespoon neutral oil, then add the steaks. Cook until deeply browned on the bottom, 4 to 5 minutes. Flip the steaks and cook until medium-rare (between 125 F and 130 F), 4 to 5 minutes more. Begin checking the internal temperature of the steaks at 6 minutes total cook time for your preferred doneness. For thicker pieces, flip onto their sides for about 1 minute to sear all over and cook more evenly.
5. Transfer to a clean cutting board or plate and let rest for 10 minutes before serving.

Why am I a Rotarian?

I have been a Rotarian since 2012. At the time I was still operating a cow calf farm east of Camrose. Over the years before joining, I had the opportunity to participate in Rotary activities because of the connection with agribusiness friends who were members. Cliff Drever finally said Rob you will not regret joining and he was right. Since joining I have had the opportunity to meet some very inspiring people who I can now call friends. As a member I have been able to meet and listen to people who are committed to making Camrose a better place to live in. I have also been involved in projects that make the world a better place to live in. If you are hesitant to join the Camrose Rotary because you think you can't contribute, I can tell you I felt that way too. My connection with agriculture and the land has been respected and appreciated by the members of our club. The beauty and strength of rotary is the diversity of opinions that each member adds. I would highly recommend joining and adding your voice.

That is why I am a Rotarian.

Personalized Memorials

Your Story in Stone

A cemetery provides an important function in our society. It is a sacred ground that has been dedicated for the purpose of perpetually providing a safe area for the placement of the earthly remains.

The purpose of the memorial is to identify the person who was laid to rest in a grave plot or in a columbarium niche. However, it also provides an opportunity beyond this basic function, the monument can tell a story through the design. If a picture can say a thousand words, the same is true of a monuments design.

We encourage careful consideration when choosing a monument. It is something you do not want to rush and you want to ensure that the quality of the memorial is something that will last forever. This is why we suggest granite as the material of choice for memorials. Granite is the hardest form of rock after diamond. Similar to diamonds, there are different grades of granite. Softer grades of granite, concrete products or fieldstones that require paint to be applied to the lettering or design elements should be avoided

Weber Funeral Home is an authorized monument and columbarium engraving provider for the Camrose Valleyview Cemetery and rural cemeteries. We provide granite that will stand the test of time. We have broad selection of colours, shapes, cuts and sizes. We also have a rendering process so that you can see a visual representation of what your monument will look like before it is ordered.

For appointments and inquiries please contact our office by phone or email. We will gladly meet with you at our office or we can come to you at your home.
