Charity Checkstop success

Camrose Police Service members and members of Camrose Police Service Trauma and Crime Support Services were joined by members of Camrose Helps and Action for Healthy Communities during the annual Charity Checkstop. Thanks to the generosity of the community donations filled the trailers on site and included over $9,000 in cash.

Stolen purse

A person reported their purse was stolen out of their vehicle while it was parked in the Camrose Community Centre Field House parking lot. The driver's side door handle was damaged. The person contacted their bank and was told that someone had attempted to use their bank card.

Attempt theft from vehicle

A person reported an attempted theft from a vehicle in a local retail parking lot, when another vehicle described as a black Avalanche pulled up beside the victim vehicle and smashed a window. Police notified the registered owner of the victim vehicle who indicated nothing was stolen from the vehicle.

Police remind citizens to remove all valuables from their vehicles at all times, even when locked. Place items out of sight in a locked trunk or take them with you. And always close your vehicle windows completely and lock the doors.

Weapons call

Reports were received of a male with access to a firearm having a mental health episode, making threats to police. Police evacuated and contained the area surrounding the suspect's residence. The suspect was arrested after attempting to flee the area. A later search of the suspect's residence revealed a firearm.

Morning Gigue

A little girl and a little boy were at day care one day. The girl approaches the boy and says, "Hey Tommy, wanna play house?"

He says, "Sure! What do you want me to do?"

The girl replies, "I want you to communicate your thoughts."

"Communicate my thoughts?" said a bewildered Tommy. "I have no idea what that means."

The little girl smirks and says, "Perfect. You can be the husband."

Boost The Balcony

The Bailey Theatre Society is launching its new fundraising initiative: Boost The Balcony

The seats in our balcony are in need of replacement. They are beyond repair. Theatre seating, unlike fine wine, doesn't get better with age, and these seats are past their best before date. They were once in Edmonton's Citadel Theatre, which opened in 1975. When they were replaced in 2007, the Citadel gave permission to Bailey volunteers to choose and remove the best ones. They were stored and later installed in 2010. These 50-year-old seats are 25 years past their normal life expectancy. A Canadian manufacturer has provided a quote to supply and install new seats, complete with cup holders. All totalled, the project will cost $96,000. That's where you come in. Help us restore the balcony. Help us continue to make the Bailey Theatre a sparkling jewel in the heart of Camrose.

SPECIAL OFFER

Right now, you can have a name plate affixed to a chair arm with a tax deductible donation of $850. It could be in your name or a loved one's or as a tribute. Please consider making a pledge, no matter how small, to Boost the Balcony.

DID YOU KNOW...

When you take your empty bottles to the Universal Bottle Depot, you can donate the proceeds to the Bailey Theatre. Every little gesture is appreciated.

Carolyn Casner

With just three ingredients, you can pull together an impressive appetizer perfect for holidays or dinner parties. The tangy cranberries cut through the richness of the cheese to create a balanced bite. This quick appetizer can be easily doubled to feed a crowd.

3-Ingredient Cranberry-Brie Crostini (Serves 12)

Active Time: 10 minutes

Total Time: 10 minutes

12 1/4-inch-thick slices whole-grain baguette, lightly toasted

1/3 cup canned whole-berry cranberry sauce

2 ounces Brie cheese, cut into 12 pieces

Chopped fresh chives for garnish (optional)

1. Position rack in upper third of oven; preheat broiler to high.
2. Place baguette slices on a baking sheet. Dollop each with a generous 1 teaspoon cranberry sauce. Top each with one piece Brie. Broil until the cheese has melted, 1 to 2 minutes. Sprinkle with chives, if desired.
