Morning Giggle

At the movie theater, a young man returning to his seat taps the arm of a woman in the last seat in the row. "Excuse me," he says, "but did I step on your toe on the way out?"

"As a matter of fact, you did," says the woman, expecting an apology.

"Oh good," says the man, "then this is my row."

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

You may discover that something you were once pressed about may not be as important to you anymore. You have better things to worry about.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

If you're feeling moved to start a new project, identify people who can support you on your mission, and reach out to them.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Do the best you can and allow the rest to work itself out. Trust the process.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Don't worry about fitting in. Your goal is to stand out. You are just as you should be.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

If you're trying to advance in your career or your life and it feels like you're moving at a snail's pace, know that for now, you're doing it right.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Today is ideal for making connections and conversation, marketing or promoting yourself, or engaging in learning.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

There could be positive developments with your finances or in your professional life.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Your confidence is attractive, as is your mind. Put yourself out there and good things will come your way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

What may have worked in the past isn't going to work now. It's time to switch things up.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

You may have a change of heart about someone today. Perhaps you've judged them too harshly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

It might sound counterintuitive, but heed this advice: To follow your heart, use your head to chart the path.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Share your thoughts and ideas. Speak your truth. Let your voice be heard.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You live your life by your own rules, which may have brought you success, as well as a little trouble. With courage and resilience, you remain undeterred by setbacks, challenges, or failures. When you set your mind to something, you move heaven and earth to make it happen. "Go hard or go home" is probably your life's motto. However, there are times when you must recognize when it's time to stop or slow down and proceed with caution. This year, you'll need to change old habits if you want to break new ground.

IMAGINE. EXPERIENCE. CELEBRATE.

Beyond the Book: Experience the Magic of A Christmas Carol Like Never Before!

Experience the magic of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol like never before! Pro Coro Canada brings this beloved holiday classic to life with a stunning musical dramatization, blending traditional carols and captivating original compositions. Featuring the choir's signature pure tones and masterful storytelling, this heartwarming performance is the perfect way to celebrate the season with family and friends.

Under Michael Zaugg's leadership, Pro Coro Canada continues to captivate audiences with its pure, floating voices and impeccable intonation, solidifying its status as a cornerstone of Canada's choral community.

About Pro Coro Canada
Pro Coro Canada, established in 1981 by Canadian conductor Michel Marc Gervais, has solidified its reputation as one of Canada's premier professional chamber choirs. Based in Edmonton, Alberta, this ensemble of 24 voices is celebrated for its diverse repertoire, spanning from early Renaissance pieces to contemporary avant-garde works. Throughout its history, Pro Coro Canada has been under the baton of esteemed choral conductors, including Anders Eby from Sweden, Søren Hansen from Denmark, Agnes Grossmann from Austria, and American Richard Sparks. In 2012, Swiss-born Michael Zaugg took the helm as Artistic Director and Principal Conductor, ushering in a new era of artistic excellence.

A strong advocate for contemporary choral music, Pro Coro Canada has commissioned and premiered over 50 works, with a significant emphasis on Canadian composers. The choir's commitment to innovation is further exemplified by its composer-in-residence program, which has featured internationally renowned composers such as Alberto Grau, Ugis Praulins and Paul Mealor. Beyond performances, Pro Coro Canada is dedicated to nurturing the next generation of choral artists through its Emerging Artist Program, and through community engagement, collaborating with various community choirs and serving as faculty in the Choral Art program at the Banff Centre from 2018-2020.

In 2021, Pro Coro Canada celebrated its 40th anniversary, marking four decades of choral excellence and contribution to Canada's cultural landscape. Under Michael Zaugg's leadership, Pro Coro Canada continues to captivate audiences with its pure, floating voices and impeccable intonation, solidifying its status as a cornerstone of Canada's choral community.

When: Saturday, December 20th at 3:00 PM

THE MORNING BITE the kitchn

Peppermint martinis go down extra smooth during the holidays

James Park, TheKitchn.com

When I think of the holidays, I immediately think of peppermint-flavored candy canes. While I love to look at those cheerful stripes of white and red, I rarely want to eat the sweet candies. Instead I use up the candy canes I receive in creative ways, from sprinkling them on top of chewy brownies to turning them into peppermint bark.

By far, my favorite way to enjoy candy canes is to use them in cocktails — especially in a creamy peppermint martini. My peppermint martini is extra festive, as it uses the candy canes as both a garnish and flavoring. Here, it takes the cocktail to the next level, transforming the drink into a pretty pink color, which makes it feel like a holiday in a cup — well, a martini glass in this case.

3 tips for making a peppermint martini

1. Experiment with the amount of peppermint extract. A little bit of extract can make it taste incredible, but too much can easily ruin the cocktail. Have fun with it, but just make sure that you aren't adding too much!
2. Add more flavor in the cocktail shaker. My peppermint martini includes crushed candy canes in the cocktail itself to infuse it with more color and flavor. It's a fantastic way to add more flavors subtly. If you want to add more pine-y, winter flavors, feel free to add real mint or peppermint to this.
3. Find balance with heavy cream. If you want more liqueur taste, add less heavy cream. If you don't want to taste too much alcohol, add more heavy cream.

Peppermint Martini (Makes 1)

2 regular-size candy canes
1 ounce white chocolate (see notes)
1 1/2 ounces white creme de cacao
1 1/2 ounces cold heavy cream
1 1/4 ounces peppermint vodka
1 1/4 ounces vodka
1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract
Ice

1. Unwrap two regular-size candy canes and place in a plastic zip-top bag. Using a rolling pin or flat side of a meat tenderizer, crush the candy canes into fine pieces (about 1/4 cup). Place on a flat plate and spread into an even layer.
2. Finely chop 1 ounce white chocolate and place in a small microwave-safe bowl. Microwave in 20-second intervals, stirring in between each, until melted and smooth, 40 seconds to 1 minute total. Scrape onto a flat plate that's wider than a martini glass.
3. Invert a 6-ounce or larger martini or stemmed cocktail glass into the white chocolate, turning it as needed, to coat the rim. Dip the glass, still inverted, into the crushed candy canes, turning it as needed, to coat the rim. Place the glass in the refrigerator or freezer to chill for at least 5 minutes.
4. Place 1 tablespoon of the remaining crushed candy canes, 1 1/2 ounces white creme de cacao, 1 1/2 ounces cold heavy cream, 1 1/4 ounces peppermint vodka, 1 1/4 ounces vodka, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract, and 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract in a cocktail shaker. Add enough ice to fill the shaker halfway. Seal the shaker and shake vigorously until the outside of the shaker is frosty, 30 seconds.
5. Pour through a fine-mesh strainer into the chilled glass.

Gordon Joseph Martz (1949–2025)

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Gordon Joseph Martz, who departed this life peacefully on November 27, 2025, at the age of 76. Gordon was born on February 26, 1949, in Heisler Alberta, to Leander and Maryanna Martz.

Left to remember him is Joanne Martz, his children, Melissa Martz of Camrose, Michael (Breanne) Martz of Lamont, Jennifer (Joel) Overeem of Millet and Jordon (Hilary) Martz of Gibsons BC. He was also the proud grandfather to eight grandchildren, Easton, Cooper, Eli, Owen, Mason, Aubrey, Jeffrey and Joey.

Gordon was a hardworking man who built a career with Pioneer Grain and continued to use his handyman skills and knowledge into his retirement helping all those around him. He also had a love for gardening that benefitted his friends and family as he was always more than willing to share, and spent time trying to instill the gardening bug into his grandchildren.

Gordon's kindness, generosity, and unwavering love for his family will never be forgotten.

A memorial service will be held at St. Martin's Catholic Church in Heisler on December 8th, 2025, at 11:00 AM.

A time of fellowship and refreshments will be held at the Heisler Community Hall following the interment service.

Discover healing through the lens of your own story. The Hospice Society of Camrose and District's Grief Photovoice Initiative invites those who are grieving to explore loss, love, and memory through photography and storytelling. No photography experience is needed—just a willingness to share and reflect. Participants will capture images that express their grief journey and come together in supportive group sessions to find meaning, connection, and hope. This creative program offers a safe, compassionate space to honor loved ones and witness the strength found in shared experiences.

Join us and let your photos speak when words fall short.

Grief shared is grief diminished. When we experience the loss of a loved one, it is important for family, friends and community to come together and support one another. When we deny ourselves the opportunity to experience the support of the community, we add to the burden of grief by causing ourselves to journey through the pain of loss alone.

Our funeral directors have over 85 years of combined experience providing funeral services. We pride ourselves in our exceptional level of service and attention to detail. Our funeral home offers a chapel and an on-site multipurpose reception centre, that can be used for any gathering. For more information, please contact our office.
