Morning Giggle

Morris, an 82 year-old man, went to the doctor to get a physical. A few days later, the doctor saw Morris walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm.

A couple of days later, the doctor spoke to Morris and said, "You're really doing great, aren't you?"

Morris replied, "Just doing what you said, Doc... 'Get a hot mamma and be cheerful.'"

The doctor replied, "I didn't say that. I said, 'You've got a heart murmur, be careful.'"

These muffins are perfect for breakfast or snack time

Julia Levy

These lemon-blueberry muffins are so good, you'll think they came straight from a bakery. A sprinkle of sugar creates a nice crunch on the outside, while yogurt ensures the muffins stay moist on the inside. If using frozen blueberries, there's no need to thaw them beforehand. They will add a purple hue to the batter, but it won't affect the delicious end result.

High-Protein Lemon-Blueberry Muffins (Makes 12 muffins)

Active Time: 20 minutes

Total Time: 45 minutes

1 1/4 cups whole-wheat flour
 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
 1 tablespoon baking powder
 1 teaspoon baking soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 cup unsweetened applesauce
 1 cup whole-milk plain Greek-style yogurt
 1/4 cup whole milk
 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon zest
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 2 large eggs
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 8 tablespoons granulated sugar, divided
 2 cups fresh or frozen blueberries

1. Preheat oven to 375 F. Line a 12-cup muffin tin with paper liners or coat with cooking spray.
2. Whisk whole-wheat flour, all-purpose flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt in a medium bowl until combined.
3. Whisk applesauce, yogurt, milk, lemon zest, lemon juice, eggs, vanilla and 7 tablespoons sugar in another medium bowl until combined. Add the flour mixture; whisk until just combined. Using a rubber spatula, gently fold in blueberries until evenly distributed.
4. Spoon the batter into the prepared muffin cups, a scant 1/2 cup each. Sprinkle the tops evenly with the remaining 1 tablespoon sugar.
5. Bake until golden and a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, about 25 minutes. Cool in the pan for 5 minutes; transfer to a wire rack. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Make-ahead tip: Store in an airtight container at room temperature for up to one week.

Serving all families like our own for over 115 years

Funeral Support - Dalas Kosinski

Dalas Kosinski started with Bugar Funeral Home in March 2023. Owner Bart Orr and Dalas have been life long friends and have had many conversations, throughout the years, on the possibility of joining the Bugar's team. After working in the oilfield & mining industry, Dalas was at the Coal Creek Golf Resort as the assistant superintendent. In March he decided to change paths and joined the team at Bugar Funeral Home.

As with many of the families we serve, Dalas' family has been served over multiple generations with compassion by Bugar Funeral Home.

The son of Rodney and Nancy (Vos) Kosinski, Dalas grew up in Daysland, where he graduated from high school. After high school Dalas was off to Fairview College where he received a Turf-Grass Diploma. He then returned home, where his heart had always been, to start his career as a golf course superintendent at the Daysland Golf & Country Club.

It was in Daysland where Dalas started a family. He has three children Skylar, Lincoln and Joren who are very active in sports, as well as, in their community.

Dalas is honored to be a part of the history of service that Bugar Funeral Home has been known for since 1906. Serving our community and its families is his passion. Dalas wants to continue to build on the longstanding reputation of Bugar Funeral Home's excellence and strives to maintain that service for many years to come.
