Morning Giggle

While working as a mall Santa, I had many children ask for electric trains. "If you get a train," I would tell each one, "you know your dad is going to want to play with it too. Is that okay?"

The usual answer was a quick yes, but after I asked one boy this question, he became very quiet. Trying to move the conversation along, I asked what else he would like Santa to bring him.

He promptly replied, "Another train."

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Have you been excessively focused on reaching a particular goal? If so, take today as an opportunity to step back and put things in perspective.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

Relieve yourself of the responsibility of trying to change things that you can't. Channel your energy into something more constructive.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

You may need to give a potential decision more time to marinate before moving forward with it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Do the best you can with the resources you have available now.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Try to remain objective when dealing with a potential conflict. Don't let your feelings pull you away from the facts.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Give yourself permission to rest and relax. It's not your job to be a superhero.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Showing up authentically in your relationships helps to keep them healthy and strong.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Juggling multiple work- and family-related responsibilities could be noticeably stressful today. Pace yourself and reevaluate what's really a priority.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

Planning out your day or schedule may be more productive than just winging it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

What you're waiting for may not be ready for you right now. Be patient.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Don't expect others to read your mind to find out what you're feeling. Tell them instead.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

The amount of work you need to do may be daunting. Start small and take it from there.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're fearlessly original. Anything that you do, you do it with your own unique style or approach. Staying true to yourself is the key to your happiness. When you follow your heart, you can do great things. Your warmth and cheerfulness make others feel welcome. You know how to bring the best out in others through your generosity, charm, and ability to lead. You pride yourself on your honesty and determination. Your creativity is a powerful force. This year, expect to make leaps and bounds with your personal growth and goals.

THE MORNING BITE

seriously simple recipes and tips for the home cook

A wine lover's salad

Diane Rossen Worthington

Each month the California Wine Institute sends out a new recipe that goes well with wine. This one caught my eye for its colorful, elegant presentation and wine recommendation.

It is difficult to pair a wine with most salads because of the acid in the salad dressing. Here, a touch of lemon juice and olive oil lightly dress the ingredients with a complementary flavor that does not overwhelm the sweet fruit and vegetables and salty prosciutto and feta cheese.

August is prime time for nectarines, peaches and plums, which all have pits. Referred to as stone fruits because of the pit/stone, any of these stone fruits grill beautifully. To remove the pit/stone carefully giggle the stone around with your fingers until it comes out. There's also no need to peel any of these fruits, which brands this salad "Seriously Simple."

Make sure you find very fresh corn for its summery sweetness. You'll need to husk it. Once cooked, the corn needs to be shucked (taken off the cob), which can be done with a corn husker gadget or a very sharp knife. You can place the corn in the hole of a bundt pan and then slice the kernels off (place vertically in the hole) so they fall into the cake hole.

This recipe calls for boiling the corn, but you could also grill it, which will add a smokey flavor. Grilling heightens the sweetness and lightly caramelizes the corn and fruits natural sugar.

For this salad, you can use nectarines alone, or a combination of stone fruits. Serve as a separate course at a dinner party or as a side salad with grilled sausages. In larger portions, the salad makes a beautiful summer lunch. Wine suggestions: California muscat, California rosé, or California extra-dry sparkling wine

Grilled Nectarine Salad with Arugula, Prosciutto, and Corn (Serves 4)

For the dressing:

1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
 1 tablespoon finely minced shallot
 3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
 Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

For the salad:

1 large ear of corn, shucked
 2 large nectarines, ripe but firm
 Extra-virgin olive oil
 4 large, thin slices prosciutto
 3 handfuls of baby arugula, about 3 ounces
 1/4 cup sliced almonds, toasted
 Crumbled feta, optional

1. Prepare the dressing: In a small bowl, combine the lemon juice and shallot; let stand for 15 minutes. Whisk in the olive oil, then season to taste with salt and pepper.

2. Bring a pot of unsalted water to a boil over high heat. Add the corn, cover, and remove from the heat. Let stand for 5 minutes. With tongs, transfer the corn to a cutting board. When cool enough to handle, cut the kernels off the cob.

3. Prepare a medium charcoal fire or preheat a gas grill to medium. Halve and pit the nectarines. Cut each half in half again. Brush all over with olive oil. Grill on the cut sides until the fruit is lightly charred and slightly softened, about 5 minutes.

4. Drape a slice of prosciutto on each of four salad plates (or put all four slices on one platter, if serving family style). In a bowl, combine the arugula and corn kernels and toss with just enough dressing to coat lightly. Divide among the salad plates. Top with the warm nectarine wedges. Sprinkle with sliced almonds and with crumbled feta, if using. Serve immediately.

Understanding Grief...

Grief is a normal but sometimes overwhelming emotion. It is a response to the loss of someone or something that we have formed relationship or a bond with. There are many dimensions to this emotion that have impacts on our physical body, our cognitive functions, social interactions, and our spirituality. It is normal to find yourself feeling numb and removed from daily life, unable to carry on with regular duties while saddled with the sense of loss. Grief is both a universal and a personal experience. Individual experiences of grief vary and are influenced by the nature of the loss.

Experts advise those grieving to realize they can't control the process and to prepare for varying stages of grief. Understanding why you're suffering can help, as can talking to others and trying to resolve issues that cause significant emotional pain.

Mourning is the expression of grief, occurring as a result of someone's death. It is a personal and a collective response which can vary depending on the contexts of the relationships we have.

Ceremony is a unified ritualistic event with a purpose, usually consisting of a number of human expressions such as music, spoken word, poetry, or other artistic components. The purpose of a funeral ceremony is for those who are experiencing grief to come together in a meaningful way that allows for the expression of our grief. Every ceremony is as unique as the individual whose life we are celebrating. Some ceremonies may have rich traditions that incorporate religious or spiritual elements. Other ceremonies may be very simple and only have a few components. The important thing is that grief shared is grief diminished and ceremony's that allow for people to mourn together can greatly support our path to acceptance.
