MLA Update

by Jackie Lovely, MLA Camrose Constituency

Phone: (780) 672-0000 • Email: camrose@assembly.ab.ca

Address: #104, 4870 - 51 Street

As I've been door knocking through the Camrose Constituency there's one message that always comes through loud and clear: access to health care close to home is a top priority.

Whether it's a regular check-up, young families visiting their family doctor, or a follow up appointment to examine an injury, Albertans shouldn't have to drive long distances just to get basic care.

That's why I'm proud to share that Alberta's government is taking action to improve access to care in rural communities like ours. Two exciting programs are already making a difference.

First, we launched the $16 million Rural and Remote Family Medicine Resident Physician Bursary Pilot Program to support 74 family medicine residents committing to practice in rural Alberta.

The bursary offers up to $125,000 for rural placement to future doctors committed to staying and serving rural families after their training ends. That means long-term access to family physicians, not just short-term help.

Second, Alberta's government is providing $6 million through the Rural Team Recruitment Grant to help rural clinics hire nurses, pharmacists, physiotherapists, and other non-physician professionals. This is about building strong, team-based care that serves the needs of the whole community.

I'm thrilled to share that Bashaw is one of the 29 clinics receiving support in this first round of funding. With this help, they'll be able to bring in new full-time professionals to help families get the care they need close to home.

These programs are part of Alberta's Rural Health Action Plan, a long-term strategy to make sure Albertans can access the care they need, when they need it.

Alberta's government is listening to rural voices and delivering real solutions. These investments are a sign of what we can accomplish when we put community needs first.

We will have work to do, and as your MLA, I will always fight to make sure communities across my constituency get their share of health resources. But today, I hope you'll join me in celebrating meaningful progress towards a stronger future for rural health in Alberta.

If you have any questions about the programs, or ideas to keep improving health care in our region, my door is always open.

Let's keep working together for the health and wellbeing of rural Alberta.

My team and I are door knocking across the constituency. If we miss you and you would like to talk, please call the office.

Morning Giggle

My sister had been ill, so I called to see how she was doing. My ten-year-old niece answered the phone.

"Hello," she whispered.

"Hi, Honey. How's your mother doing?" I asked.

"She's sleeping," she answered, again in a whisper.

"Did she go to the doctor?" I asked.

"Yes. She got some medicine," my niece said softly.

"Well, don't wake her. Just tell her I called. What are you doing, by the way?"

Again in a soft whisper, she answered, "Practicing my trumpet."

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Maybe you don't have as much time for everything as you thought. Scale back.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

You often prefer to do things your way, but is this really the most efficient way to do things right now?

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Take time to sit with what you're feeling before you end up saying something that you'll later regret.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Beware of jumping to conclusions or making a minor issue a bigger problem than it should be.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

It may be necessary to back out of a plan with friends due to financial concerns. Conserve your coins.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

There may be much you want to get accomplished, but your nerves are probably fried. Give yourself some space to breathe.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

You may be feeling moody and restless. Spend time doing something that helps you feel calm and grounded, like stretching or deep breathing.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

It may be hard to pull a group project or plan together. Maybe you should let someone else take the reins or try again at a later date.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

Don't promise more than you can deliver. Set realistic expectations for yourself and others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

If something's not working, maybe it's best to scrap it rather than fix it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Beware of reading too much into what someone says or doesn't say. What's going on with them may have nothing to do with you.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Sometimes disagreements are unavoidable, but today it may be helpful to put space between yourself and others.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You are full of life and have a ton of energy. You refuse to let the challenges of the world get you down. You're the living definition of "where there's a will, there's a way." You love anything fun, luxurious and inspiring. As someone with a gigantic heart, you never hesitate to let the people you love know just how much you care. However, finding a healthy balance between giving and receiving may be something you need to practice more. This year, you're encouraged to conserve your time, energy and resources as much as you possibly can.

THE MORNING BITE

JeanMarie Brownson

Grilled lamb might become your new favorite summer meal

We celebrate every minute of summer, super-hot days and thunderstorms included. When friends join us, life couldn't be better.

My favorite summer meal always involves the grill. Especially lamb on the grill. Accompanied by a bevy of fresh herbs, red wine and a crisp salad.

The deep, rich flavor of lamb works well with the golden brownness the grill imparts. A hot grill will nicely mark and cook the exterior of the lamb while keeping the interior moist and juicy.

For a larger gathering, boneless leg of lamb, butterflied into an even thickness, cooks much like a thick steak. For an intimate gathering, seek out lamb chops with bright color and some fat marbling. Lamb rib chops offer big flavor in small bites and are readily available at large supermarkets, Costco and Trader Joe's.

For a super special meal, look for racks of lamb sold at many grocery stores and butcher shops. This premium cut is from the rib section of the lamb and usually has seven or eight ribs still attached to each other. Because it's situated between the shoulder and the loin of the lamb, it stays nice and tender. Most pre-packaged racks of lamb come from Australia, with their skinny rib bones "frenched," that is, cleaned of meat and fat for an elegant presentation.

Cooking a rack of lamb feels tricky because the cost worries us. is difficult to cook. No need to worry, a hot grill, a timer and an instant-read thermometer help. A whole rack grills in 15 to 20 minutes for medium-rare, 135 to 140 degrees.

I often prefer to separate the rack into individual chops by slicing between two rib bones, making what some restaurants dub a "lamb lollipop." These chops cook in less than 5 minutes and are easy to serve and eat. Plan on 3 to 4 of these rib chops per serving, depending on appetites.

Whichever lamb cut you choose, keep the flavorings simple, such as fresh herbs and olive oil. After cooking, top with a pat of butter and fresh chives or a splash of a tangy vinaigrette. I take advantage of all the berries at the farmer's market for a subtle fruity addition to a sherry vinaigrette.

Serve these chops with a hearty green salad, such as a homemade Caesar or a wedge salad. Roasted potatoes tossed with herbs or couscous peppered with plenty of butter and fresh herbs, make a nice side dish.

Grilled Lamb Chops with Blackberry-Chipotle Vinaigrette (Makes 4 servings)

Note: Use smoked paprika in place of the chipotle if you prefer mild spice.

2 racks of lamb with bones frenched, OR 8 to 12 lamb loin chops, each 3/4- to 1-inch thick, (2 to 2 1/4 pounds total)
Salt, freshly ground black pepper

Sherry vinaigrette:

1/2 pint fresh blackberries
1/3 cup extra-virgin olive oil
3 tablespoons sherry vinegar
1 small shallot, minced
1/2 teaspoon pureed chipotles in adobo, or 1/4 teaspoon ground chipotle
1/4 cup thinly sliced fresh chives

1. If using racks of lamb, use a sharp knife to slice into double chops by cutting the rack between two ribs. Pat lamb chops dry and place on a baking sheet. Mix 1/2 teaspoon salt and pepper in a small dish. Generously season chops on all sides with the mixture. Refrigerate, loosely covered, 30 to 60 minutes.

2. For sherry vinaigrette, put half of the blackberries into a wire mesh sieve. Set the sieve over a bowl and use the back of a spoon to push the berries through the sieve. Discard the seeds in the sieve. You'll have about 1/4 cup puree. Stir oil, vinegar, shallot, chipotle, 1/4 teaspoon each salt and pepper into the berry puree. Taste and adjust seasonings.

3. Prepare a charcoal grill or preheat a gas grill to medium hot. Place lamb chops in an uncrowded layer directly over the heat. Cover the grill and cook 2 minutes. Flip chops and continue cooking, covered, until medium-rare, 1 minute more if cooking rib chops, 3 to 4 minutes more if cooking loin chops. Remove to a serving platter.

4. Serve chops while they are hot with a generous spoonful of the vinaigrette. Sprinkle generously with chives. Garnish with remaining blackberries.

Recipe note: To broil chops, preheat broiler to high and position rack 6 inches from heat source. Put chops on broiler pan and cook 2 minutes. Flip and cook until medium-rare, 2 to 4 minutes more.

Funeral Support - Dalas Kosinski

Dalas Kosinski started with Bugar Funeral Home in March 2023. Owner Bart Orr and Dalas have been life long friends and have had many conversations, throughout the years, on the possibility of joining the Bugar's team. After working in the oilfield & mining industry, Dalas was at the Coal Creek Golf Resort as the assistant superintendent. In March he decided to change paths and joined the team at Bugar Funeral Home.

As with many of the families we serve, Dalas' family has been served over multiple generations with compassion by Bugar Funeral Home.

The son of Rodney and Nancy (Vos) Kosinski, Dalas grew up in Daysland, where he graduated from high school. After high school Dalas was off to Fairview College where he received a Turf-Grass Diploma. He then returned home, where his heart had always been, to start his career as a golf course superintendent at the Daysland Golf & Country Club.

It was in Daysland where Dalas started a family. He has three children Skylar, Lincoln and Joren who are very active in sports, as well as, in their community.

Dalas is honored to be a part of the history of service that Bugar Funeral Home has been known for since 1906. Serving our community and its families is his passion. Dalas wants to continue to build on the longstanding reputation of Bugar Funeral Home's excellence and strives to maintain that service for many years to come.
