Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Today could be nice for hosting a family dinner at home or taking yourself out for a yummy meal. Maybe you're feeling daring enough to try out a new recipe or dish.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

It's time to follow through on a plan or idea you've had, complete and file important paperwork, or get a much-needed conversation started.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Take time out of your busy schedule to spend some of it with yourself or do something that's just for you.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

You may be moved to take the helm of a group project or plan. With your confidence, charisma and know-how, people will be more than willing to follow your lead.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Using your intuition to inform important business or career decisions will enable you to achieve the best outcome.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Today is advantageous for pursuing new learning experiences, travel opportunities or a chance to share your knowledge with others.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

A well-crafted plan or strategy will help you get the results or the position you want.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

It might be time to clear the air with someone. A straightforward approach will work best. On another note, there may be someone in your life who could use your encouragement.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

If clutter or work has been piling up, this can be a good time to take care of it. Today is also favorable for doing wellness-related activities, like Pilates or weight training.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

The day will be perfect for a brainstorming meeting or creative collaboration. Meanwhile, the evening will be ideal for romance or spending time with someone you love.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

You'll find it to be a productive time for searching for a new home or apartment or finishing a home-related DIY job. Today is also useful for working through difficult feelings.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Ask someone out on a date or let someone know how you feel. Confidence is attractive. If you're in a more creative mood, you can make strides with a work-in-progress.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're relatable and charismatic. You have a warm and welcoming personality that draws people in. You thrive in the company of others, which is often why you enjoy attending social events or working on a team. However, maintaining your individuality is important to you too. You don't want a cookie-cutter kind of life. You would much rather have unique and exciting experiences -- experiences that can give you good stories to tell. This year, you may be busy tying up loose ends and handling unfinished business so you can clear a way for something new to come in.

Today's Tip

MASTER STROKES

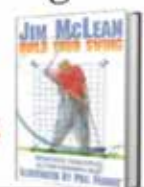

BY PHIL FRANKE WITH TOP 100 GOLF INSTRUCTORS

Low & Slow = Long & Straight!

Many amateurs make an abrupt, narrow backswing. This quick takeaway doesn't allow your body to turn fully, causing a loss of power with inconsistent results. For regular full shots, especially those played from the tee, you should start the club back as low and as slow as possible. Try to push the club back low to the ground and slowly to the point where you see your hands pass over your right foot. If the movement feels ridiculously slow, that's fine. This takeaway allows you to build a full extension with the arms and club on the backswing, which translates into greater power, and it gives you more time to get your body turning fully on the backswing. Consistent, more powerful shots to follow!

A salt-spoonful of salt.

Directions

You must prepare all your ingredients the day before (except beating the eggs) that in the morning you may have nothing to do but to mix them, as the pudding will require six hours to boil.

Beat the eggs very light, then put to them half the milk and beat both together. Stir in gradually the flour and grated bread. Next add the sugar by degrees. Then the suet and fruit alternately. The fruit must be well sprinkled with flour, lest it sink to the bottom. Stir very hard. Then add the spice and liquor, and lastly the remainder of the milk. Stir the whole mixture very well together. If it is not thick enough, add a little more grated bread or flour. If there is too much bread or flour, the pudding will be hard and heavy.

Dip your pudding-cloth, in boiling water, shake it out and sprinkle it slightly with flour. Lay it in a pan and pour the mixture into the cloth. Tie it up carefully, allowing room for the pudding to swell.

Boil it six hours, and turn it carefully out of the cloth.

Before you send it to table, have ready some blanched sweet almonds cut in slips, or some slips of citron, or both. Stick them all over the outside of the pudding.

Eat it with wine, or with a sauce made of drawn butter, wine and nutmeg.

The pudding will be improved if you add to the other ingredients, the grated rind of a large lemon or orange.

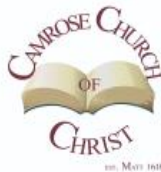

"DO YOU KNOW?"

He will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom & knowledge, the fear of Jehovah is His treasure.

United Conservatives are delivering practical investments that show up in everyday life – shorter waits for surgery, more affordable paths to education, simpler access to the services people rely on, and world-class opportunities creating jobs in our communities. These are the kinds of results Albertans can see and feel – and together, they're helping ensure Alberta remains the best place to live, work, and raise a family.

Improving our health care system means helping Albertans get the care they need, when and where they need it – including shorter waits for surgery. That's why our government is investing $809 million to expand surgical capacity and help even more people get the procedures they need sooner. This includes adding operating room time, using specialized surgical centres for routine procedures, and upgrading hospitals and equipment. A new patient-focused funding model, already in place at 12 Alberta hospitals, means funding will follow the patient – supporting up to 50,000 additional surgeries and helping more Albertans get treated faster.

United Conservatives are focused on student success, investing more than $1 billion to make post-secondary education more affordable and accessible. Applications for government loans and grants opened June 3 and include more non-repayable support like scholarships and awards – helping Alberta students reduce debt and stay in school. Eligibility rules have also been updated to better reflect each student's financial situation, ensuring support goes to those who need it most so more Albertans can build new skills, finish their education, and create better opportunities for themselves and their families. For more information or to apply, visit studentaid.alberta.ca.

One card. That's it. Our government is making it easier to access important services by combining your driver's licence or ID card with your health number and a citizenship marker, starting July 2. This means less to carry and fewer steps when you need to verify your identity or access care. The new cards feature a modern design and stronger security to help prevent fraud, while reducing the need for paper health cards over time. When you renew or apply, your information will be securely added – making everyday services faster, simpler, and more convenient for Albertans.

Alberta's summer sports season is bringing energy and excitement to communities across the province. Between February and August, we're investing $1.3 million to help host 12 major sporting events. Cities like Calgary, Edmonton, Canmore, and Grande Prairie are welcoming more than 115,000 athletes and fans, boosting local businesses and tourism. From triathlons to BMX and softball, these events are creating good local jobs, filling hotels and restaurants, and showcasing Alberta as a top destination for world-class competition.

United Conservatives are building momentum and an Alberta that works even better for everyone. We're doing that with a clear plan: focusing on what matters most to Albertans and strengthening the province for what comes next. No matter what corner of the province you call home, you'll see results – and a future you can count on.
