Why am I a Rotarian?

I have been a Rotarian since 2012. At the time I was still operating a cow calf farm east of Camrose. Over the years before joining, I had the opportunity to participate in Rotary activities because of the connection with agribusiness friends who were members. Cliff Drever finally said Rob you will not regret joining and he was right. Since joining I have had the opportunity to meet some very inspiring people who I can now call friends. As a member I have been able to meet and listen to people who are committed to making Camrose a better place to live in. I have also been involved in projects that make the world a better place to live in. If you are hesitant to join the Camrose Rotary because you think you can't contribute, I can tell you I felt that way too. My connection with agriculture and the land has been respected and appreciated by the members of our club. The beauty and strength of rotary is the diversity of opinions that each member adds. I would highly recommend joining and adding your voice.

That is why I am a Rotarian.

THE MORNING BITE ENVIRONMENTAL NUTRITION

Vegetable intake may prevent frailty

Increasing vegetable intake during midlife is associated with lower likelihood of physical frailty in later life, according to a Chinese study. The Journal of Nutrition, Health and Aging, November 2024, says data from nearly 12,000 participants, with a mean age of 52 at the start of the study and 72 at follow-up, showed that compared to those with the lowest level of vegetable intake, those in the highest had reduced odds of frailty.

Intake of vegetables high in certain plant compounds, including beta carotene (e.g., orange, yellow, and leafy vegetables), lutein (e.g., leafy greens, broccoli, and asparagus), folate (e.g., dark leafy greens, avocado, beets), and isothiocyanates (e.g., Brussels sprouts, cabbage, kale) may have accounted for the association, researchers say.

So head to the grocery store and stock up on your veggies!

Let us guide you in choosing the right monument for your loved one...

- Monuments help families who have lost a loved one through the difficult transition period by providing them with a tangible link between the past, the present, and the future.
- Monuments can also tell the story of the deceased. You can have custom images put on the monument that can show what your loved one enjoyed, a glimpse into who they were.

- Monuments provide families a place where they can go, to reflect on the memories of their loved one, and on the moments they spent with them.
