Morning Giggle

An elderly gentleman was telling his friend about his new hearing aid. He said, "This hearing aid is so good that I can hear a pin drop to the floor 60 feet away."

The friend said, "What kind is it?"

HOROSCOPES

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Listen to your heart. It won't steer you wrong.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

It's better to catch up with people during the first half of the day when you're likely to be in a social mood.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

If there's someone you need to connect with who is a person of influence or authority (like a supervisor, for example), it's a good day to reach out.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Broadening your knowledge or skillset can aid you in becoming a better parent, leader or professional.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Facing your fears can be both empowering and liberating. You can do it!

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Use today for addressing a problem or issue within an important relationship. Don't allow it to fester. Finding common ground is possible.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

You'll find today helpful for taking care of your well-being and catching up on work or chores. Ask for help if needed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

You can find happiness with a creative project or an entertaining hobby. Having fun is important for your health and wellness, too.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

The day might start off a bit sluggish and slow, which could put you in a "blah" mood. By the evening, you should be feeling like yourself again.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

Think positively. Practice gratitude. Appreciate the beauty around you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

If the timing wasn't right for an idea or project you've been wanting to work on, the timing may be right now.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Sometimes it's necessary to put your needs first. Before you can do anything good for anyone else, you must be able to do some good for yourself.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're a passionate, freedom-loving soul. Others either envy or admire your adventurous spirit. It's not uncommon for you to set the standard or a trend that others follow. You're natural leader. You're also a fighter. You can beat any challenge that arises. You're sharp, resourceful and ambitious. When you're with others, you're often the funny, charismatic attention-grabber. People can't help but notice you because you light up like a star! This year, know that whatever is meant for you will be yours. Trust that the right things will show up at the right time.

THE MORNING BITE

seriously simple recipes and tips for the home cook

Enjoy this Seriously Simple meal in less than 30 minutes

Diane Rossen Worthington

It's finally spring, and that means asparagus is in season. Combining it with salmon is a winner for lunch or dinner.

Make sure to use medium-sized asparagus so the salmon and asparagus can finish cooking at the same time. It's important to snap off the woody ends of the asparagus; however, if you also have the time and inclination, peel them. You'll notice that peeling asparagus helps to cook them more evenly and they are tender throughout, as the outer skin can be tough and fibrous.

Roasted asparagus has a decidedly creamy texture and becomes slightly caramelized. The lemon marinade in this recipe is a beautiful accompaniment.

The miso-mayonnaise coating is spread atop the salmon in an even layer and helps make the salmon moist. I personally love salmon cooked to medium-rare; but make sure you find out from any guests how they prefer their salmon cooked, because many prefer it medium.

It's easy to overcook salmon, so watch carefully. Cooking salmon to medium-rare, or an internal temperature of 120 F to 125 F, results in a tender, buttery texture without drying out the fish. If you have a meat thermometer, use it. Otherwise, you can check it by slicing through to see if it is finished cooking.

This colorful one-pan dish may become a weekly rotation as it is in our home. It is the definition of Seriously Simple (if you don't peel the asparagus). You can add some cooked carrots and buttered pasta to complete the meal, if you want. To drink, it is a bit challenging. Asparagus can be a tough match with its grassy flavor. Try an unoaked chardonnay or a sauvignon blanc to pair with this meal.

Roasted Miso Salmon and Lemony Asparagus (Serves 4)

2 tablespoons olive oil
 Zest of 1 lemon
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 Salt and Pepper
 1-pound medium sized asparagus, trimmed and peeled
 1 1/2 pound best quality salmon filet, skinless or with skin, whole or cut into 6-ounce pieces
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 2 teaspoons white miso

1. Preheat the oven to 425 F. Combine the olive oil, lemon zest and juice, salt and pepper in a plastic lock-top bag. Place the asparagus in and close the bag. Move the asparagus around in the bag until they are evenly coated.
2. Arrange the asparagus on a parchment lined sheet pan on the outer part of the pan so there will be room for the salmon.
3. Combine the mayonnaise and miso in a small bowl and mix around until blended. Season the salmon with salt and pepper, spread with the miso mayonnaise and then arrange in the center of the pan, making sure that the asparagus are in one layer.
4. Roast for 12 to 16 minutes, depending upon the thickness of the salmon and until the asparagus are tender and the salmon is cooked through. Thicker pieces will require longer roasting. Arrange the salmon and asparagus on serving plates and serve immediately.

Advance preparation: This may be served as a chilled entree. After the fish and asparagus are cooked, let them come to room temperature. Loosely cover and refrigerate until serving. Feel free to add a tomato and lettuce salad to the plate for a springtime salad.

Let us guide you in choosing the right monument for your loved one...

- Monuments help families who have lost a loved one through the difficult transition period by providing them with a tangible link between the past, the present, and the future.
- Monuments can also tell the story of the deceased. You can have custom images put on the monument that can show what your loved one enjoyed, a glimpse into who they were.

- Monuments provide families a place where they can go, to reflect on the memories of their loved one, and on the moments they spent with them.
