Morning Giggle

Ginger is walking through the zoo when she notices Jack throwing $10 bills in the monkey cage.

Curious, she walks closer and asks, "Jack, what are you doing? Why are you giving the monkeys money?"

"The sign by the gate says it was okay," he replies.

Ginger looks at him quizzically, "It did?"

"Yes, it said, 'Do not feed. $10 fine.'"

Our History

Dedicated Service Since 1906

Burgar Funeral Home was started by Hiram Burgar in the back of his hardware store in 1906 - one of the first businesses in the Camrose community. After two years, his partner, Mr. Wallace withdrew from the business and his interest was taken over by Mr. Davidson, and was renamed Burgar, Davidson and company Hardware. When Davidson left the business in 1911, Burgar took over as the sole owner and in the same year Hiram and Maude (Wilson) were married. Three children were born in this union - Helen, Roderick and Doliena.

In 1917, Hiram sold his hardware store to concentrate full time on his funeral business and moved it to the present location. Rod joined his father in the business but in 1939 left to join the Canadian Air Force. After World War II ended, Rod returned to work in the funeral industry with his father. Soon after the firm name was changed to H. Burgar and Son.

When Hiram passed away in 1949, Rod and his wife Marg (Margaret) were left to manage the business. In 1959, Alver Person joined Rod Burgar and was employed at the time construction took place for the new Funeral Home.

In 1962, the sudden passing of Rod Burgar was a great shock to the community. His funeral service was one of the first to be held after the new building was dedicated, just two weeks prior to his untimely death.

Alver Person and Marg Burgar managed the business for the next few years, and in 1965, Alver purchased the business. The firm's name was then changed to Burgar Funeral Home Camrose Ltd., as it remains today.

Roger Erickson joined the firm and, in 1967 when he left to pursue other endeavors, Rod Madison began his career in the funeral service. Burgar Funeral Home was involved in the ambulance service from the very early years until 1971 when the City of Camrose assumed the responsibility. In 1979, the well-established Daysland Funeral Home was purchased by Burgar's. Bob Hanrahan, as manager, was associated with that funeral home for more than 70 years.

Reg Madison, Joe Schulte, and Steve Haugen were a part of Burgar Funeral Home and Alver's son, John, later joined the business, and served the community until 2017. Cam Parker joined Burgar Funeral Home in 1995 and served the community for 24 years. Bart Orr joined the firm in 2011 after the passing of his father introduced him to Cam and John.

Burgar Funeral Home is currently owned and operated by Bart Orr who, along with his dedicated team, are able to provide support to families in their time of need. We at Burgar Funeral Home consider it a true privilege and honor to have served and guided the families of Camrose, Daysland and area since 1906.
