Morning Giggle

A young man applied for a job and when he returned home, his mother asked how the interview went. He said, "Pretty good, but if I get the job, I won't get a vacation unless I'm married."

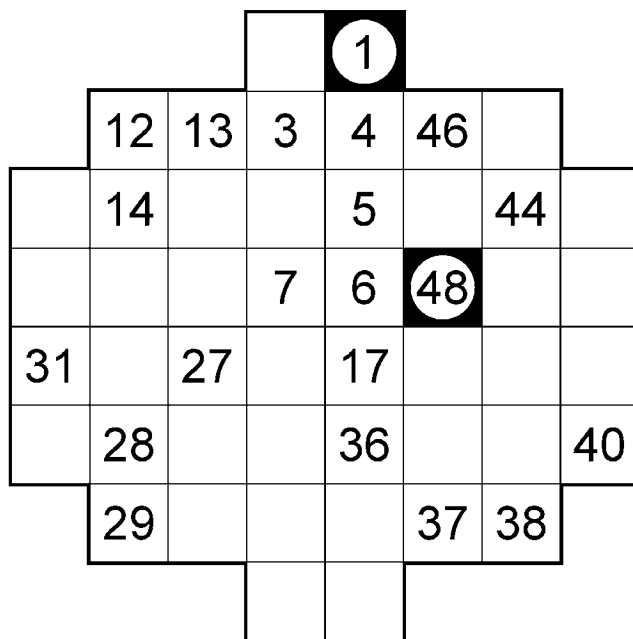

His mother had never heard of such a thing and asked, "Is that what they told you?"

The young man replied, "No, they didn't tell me that, but on the application it said that vacation time is not available until after your first anniversary."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Seek opportunities to partner with people for a good cause. Together you can make a difference.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

Set aside some quiet time for yourself. It may help to increase your productivity or your creative energy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Connect with people who lift your spirits and inspire you to think big. The positive energy will be good for you.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

It's an ideal day for participating in business-related meetings or discussions. People will be open to your ideas, expertise or guidance.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

The best relationships to have are the ones that allow you room to grow.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Take steps to decrease the amount of work you're doing. Perhaps there are commitments you can afford to delegate or step away from.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Be brave enough to ask for help, and it will come.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Give more energy to the things you have control over. Allow the rest to work itself out.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

You may have a creative idea that's worth exploring further. However, it doesn't mean you should try to monetize it. Some things are just for fun.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

Expect a positive outcome with a financial matter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

You are very persuasive today. It's a good time to pitch a proposal, negotiate, or market yourself.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

You have the power to manifest exactly what you want.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're a studious person. Your mind is always hungry to learn. When you aren't busy thinking up your next plan or idea, you can often be found discovering solutions to tough problems or doling out practical wisdom to those seeking comfort or guidance. You have a way with words that makes people very amenable to what you have to say. As such, you may be a person of great influence either professionally or within your circle of family and friends. This year, if you've found joy and passion to be in short supply, maybe it's time to rediscover what makes you happy.

BIRTHDATE OF

THE MORNING BITE

EatingWell

This stir-fry is all about the sauce

Adam Dolge

Apricot jam adds just the right amount of sweetness to balance the spicy, salty and umami flavors in this sauce that lightly coats tender pieces of pork and crisp green beans. If gluten is not a concern, soy sauce may be used instead of tamari.

Pork & Green Bean Stir-Fry (Serves 4)

Active Time: 20 minutes

Total Time: 20 minutes

1/4 cup apricot jam
2 tablespoons reduced-sodium tamari
1 tablespoon toasted sesame oil
2 teaspoons chile-garlic sauce
1 pound pork tenderloin, trimmed and cut into thin strips
1/4 cup cornstarch
3 tablespoons grapeseed or avocado oil
12 ounces green beans, trimmed
1/4 cup thinly sliced scallions, plus more for garnish
2 tablespoons toasted sesame seeds

1. Whisk jam, tamari, sesame oil and chile-garlic sauce in a small bowl. Set aside.
2. Toss pork with cornstarch in a medium bowl until no cornstarch remains at the bottom of the bowl.
3. Heat grapeseed (or avocado) oil in a large flat-bottom wok or cast-iron skillet over medium-high heat until it shimmers. Add the pork and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and crisp, 6 to 8 minutes. Stir in green beans and continue to cook, stirring often, until the beans are tender-crisp, 3 to 6 minutes. Add the jam mixture and cook, stirring often, until well coated, 30 seconds to 1 minute.
4. Remove from heat and add scallions and sesame seeds. Toss to combine. Sprinkle with more scallions, if desired.

Tasty tip: People with celiac disease or gluten-sensitivity should use soy sauces that are labeled “gluten-free,” as soy sauce may contain wheat or other gluten-containing sweeteners and flavors.

Understanding Grief...

Grief is a normal but sometimes overwhelming emotion. It is a response to the loss of someone or something that we have formed relationship or a bond with. There are many dimensions to this emotion that have impacts on our physical body, our cognitive functions, social interactions, and our spirituality. It is normal to find yourself feeling numb and removed from daily life, unable to carry on with regular duties while saddled with the sense of loss. Grief is both a universal and a personal experience. Individual experiences of grief vary and are influenced by the nature of the loss.

Experts advise those grieving to realize they can't control the process and to prepare for varying stages of grief. Understanding why you're suffering can help, as can talking to others and trying to resolve issues that cause significant emotional pain.

Mourning is the expression of grief, occurring as a result of someone's death. It is a personal and a collective response which can vary depending on the contexts of the relationships we have.

Ceremony is a unified ritualistic event with a purpose, usually consisting of a number of human expressions such as music, spoken word, poetry, or other artistic components. The purpose of a funeral ceremony is for those who are experiencing grief to come together in a meaningful way that allows for the expression of our grief. Every ceremony is as unique as the individual whose life we are celebrating. Some ceremonies may have rich traditions that incorporate religious or spiritual elements. Other ceremonies may be very simple and only have a few components. The important thing is that grief shared is grief diminished and ceremony's that allow for people to mourn together can greatly support our path to acceptance.
