PROPERTY CRIME – RECOVERY OF STOLEN BICYCLES

The Camrose Police Service has been actively investigating a series of property-related crimes, including the theft of bicycles, reported over the past month. Following a thorough investigation, a suspect has been identified and arrested.

On May 6, 2025, a youth was located and arrested. At the time of the arrest, the youth was found in possession of several break-in tools, illicit drugs, and a stolen bicycle. A subsequent search of a residence led to the discovery of multiple stolen bicycle frames and tools.

The youth has been released on several conditions and is scheduled to appear in Camrose Provincial Court.

The Camrose Police Service is seeking to identify victims of these thefts and return the stolen bicycle frames to their rightful owners. If you have had a bicycle stolen over the last three months, please contact Det. Cleveland with a description of your lost bicycle.

Preventative Measures:

We encourage the citizens of Camrose to sign up and register their bicycles on the Bike Index website. This will assist the police in the recovery of stolen bikes within the community.

Morning Giggle

Little Johnny stared at his test paper.

The big read "F" stared back at him.

Freddie looked at his glum friend and asked, "Why did you get such a low grade on that test?"

"Because of an absence," Johnny answered.

"You mean you were absent on the day of the test?" he questioned.

Little Johnny replied, "No, but the kid who sits next to me was."

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Try to conserve your time and energy. Consider ways you can allot yourself more free time in your schedule.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

It may be necessary to deal with a matter you've been avoiding. It may be uncomfortable, but it could also be empowering.

Recognize when it's time to step back and allow someone else to step in and help.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

You may need to have a heart-to-heart conversation. It will feel good to clear the air.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

With your limitless passion, determination and brainpower, you often achieve your goals. You rarely run out of innovative ideas or solutions. You are profoundly witty and a great conversationalist. You enjoy spending time with people who stimulate your mind and engage your curiosity. You also enjoy talking with people who make you laugh. You're a serious thinker but also know how to find the humor or levity in a situation. Many people appreciate the down-to-earth quality about you. This year calls on you to nurture yourself more. Do what's good for your well-being.

This simple stew combines the best of spring

Chives and mint sprigs have been pushing up in the garden for several weeks now. Thankfully, much of this country will see the first skinny, emerald green asparagus spears and tiny, tender peas at local farmers markets soon.

Green is the color of spring itself, especially the green of a perfectly cooked asparagus or pile of sweet peas. The first step for either vegetable involves a little time. To prepare asparagus, soak it in cold water with several changes to remove all grit from the tips of the stalks. For peas, employ some patience while shucking them from their tough pods.

Farmers market asparagus may vary in length and thickness, with some having curved stalks while others are straight. I prefer medium thick stalks over super skinny or jumbo versions. Deep purple asparagus seems to have more flavor when cooked; just know that they, too, turn green when heated. Look for pretty tips and wrap the ends (not the tips) in a damp towel before storing them in a plastic bag in the refrigerator. Just before cooking, trim off the tough ends with a knife and lightly peel about 2 inches up the stem if desired.

Freshly shucked peas will turn your opinion about peas upside down. The bright, crisp orbs taste nothing like the canned or frozen peas of childhood. Don't wait too long to cook them once they are out of their pods — they taste sweetest just after shucking. Sugar snap peas and snow peas often show up in the spring markets; they are cooked and eaten, pod and all.

Spring's small, firm zucchini make the best, curly, long, spaghetti-shaped noodles. Trim off the ends and then use a spiralizer or julienne peeler to pull long "noodles" down the length of the zucchini. If you make them ahead (or purchase zucchini noodles from the store) set the noodles on paper towels to absorb excess moisture.

This simple stew combines the best of spring. Seasoning the vegetable cooking water always adds to the flavor of the final dish. For a lovely main dish, set a small ball of burrata cheese in the center of a shallow serving bowl. Top with the warm vegetable mixture. Or, add cooked gnocchi or boiled tiny new potatoes to the finished dish.

If you have access to small artichokes, cut them into quarters and boil in salted water until tender when pierced with a fork. Scoop out and discard the prickly choke; add the artichokes to the finished dish.

THE MORNING BITE

Spring Vegetables with Fresh Mozzarella and Herbs (Makes 4 to 6 servings)

Salt

1 bunch (16 ounces) medium-sized asparagus spears, ends trimmed

1 cup (3 ounces) shelled fresh green peas

2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil

3 ounces diced pancetta or bacon or strips of thinly sliced prosciutto

1 knob onion or 2 green onions, trimmed, finely chopped including green

2 or 3 cloves garlic, very thinly sliced

2 tablespoons flour

1 1/2 cups low-sodium chicken broth or vegetable broth

1 or 2 tablespoons heavy whipping cream, optional

Freshly ground black pepper

2 cups (6 ounces) fresh zucchini spirals or very thin slices

1 carton (15 ounces) small fresh mozzarella pearls, drained

3 tablespoons thinly sliced chives

1 or 2 teaspoons thinly sliced fresh mint leaves

1. Set a colander in the sink. Heat a large pot of salted water to the boil. Add the asparagus and cook until bright green, about 2 minutes. Add peas. Cook until both vegetables are crisp-tender, 2 to 3 minutes more. Drain well.

2. Heat oil in large 12-inch nonstick skillet. Add pancetta and onion. Cook until pancetta is golden, 2 to 3 minutes. Stir in garlic; cook 1 minute. Stir in flour and cook 1 minute. Gradually stir in broth and optional cream. Cook and stir until thickened, about 5 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Add zucchini; cook to lightly coat zucchini with the sauce, about 1 minute. Stir in peas and asparagus and turn vegetables in the sauce to coat them and heat them through.

4. Remove from heat. Stir in mozzarella balls. Serve in wide bowls. Garnish with chives and mint.
