The Sacred Remains:
Undoing Cultural Erasure through Community Engagement

During the Holocaust, Nazis made a wallet from a looted and desecrated Torah scroll. It represents one example of genocidal attack through cultural erasure. Jeremy Maron discusses how using human rights to organize and manage museums can illuminate the meaning and significance of the wallet. Engaging with members of Jewish communities is central to reclaiming the object's persisting sacred quality and restoring its original status.

Jeremy Maron, PhD
Canadian Museum for Human Rights
Curator of Holocaust and genocide content

HOROSCOPES

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Be mindful of being impulsive or overly self-focused. Take a more grounded or thoughtful approach.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

The day might get off to a moody start. However, if you focus on who and what brings you joy, you can finish out the rest of the day strong.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

You may be feeling a bit of social burnout or fatigue. Maybe you need to sequester yourself away for a little while so you can regroup.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

You may want to do things your way, but compromising may actually make the process run a lot smoother.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Your body may need some extra love and care today. Put your well-being first.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

If you're feeling tense, engaging in a hobby or a playful activity could help you find calm. Dating or romance could be enjoyable, too.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Take time to tend to your spiritual wellness. Feed your soul.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Don't let the negative or antagonistic energy of others distract you from your goals. Too, community is available if you need it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

Avoid starting new projects if possible. There already may be enough work for you to finish.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

There may be a lot that's outside of your control. Stay optimistic anyway!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Before you take on a new commitment or obligation, consider if you have the bandwidth.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

You and your mind may be all over the place today, which could make it difficult to get much done. Lean on your friends or network for support.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

With your witty sense of humor and heart of gold, you bring joy to those around you, especially your friends and family. Your playful personality, insightful observations, and multifaceted personality often draw the appreciation and admiration of others. Your willingness to try new things and step outside of your comfort zone is one of your greatest strengths. This year, expect success in your professional or financial life. Don't discount the hard work you're putting in.

This holiday salad is colorful and delicious

Diane Rossen Worthington

The holiday meals seem to come one after another as Thanksgiving approaches. There are get-togethers like Friendsgiving, Hannukah, Christmas and Kwanza that may require a dish or many to prepare. I like this salad, because it can be a one-step solution to many different events. It's very pretty to present on a large platter for a lunch or dinner buffet. It is also easy to plate and serve individually. Here is a salad that celebrates the holiday season.

This colorful, crunchy, creamy salad satisfies all the flavor and texture components. The goat cheese is sprayed with olive oil and covered in Japanese-style crisp breadcrumbs called panko. Just before serving it is baked and placed on top of the fruit-laced baby greens.

The vinaigrette offers a slightly creamy herbal punch of acid to counteract the sweetness of the dates and apples, and it can be prepared up to a week ahead, covered and refrigerated. Bring to room temperature and whisk before using.

The salad can be prepared up to two hours ahead, covered and refrigerated. Bake the cheese just before serving. If you want to make it an entree salad, feel free to add small cubes of roasted chicken. You can also use spinach, arugula or baby gems instead of the baby greens if you prefer.

Holiday Salad with Apples, Dates, Pomegranates and Warm Goat Cheese (Serves 8)

1 (8 ounce) log goat cheese, cut into 8 equal size discs
 Olive oil spray
 1 cup panko crumbs

For the vinaigrette:

1 medium shallot, finely chopped
 1 garlic clove, minced
 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
 1 tablespoon finely chopped chives
 1 teaspoon grainy mustard
 1/4 cup pomegranate vinegar or red wine
 3/4 cup olive oil
 1 tablespoon cream or plain yogurt
 Salt and freshly ground black pepper

For the salad:

1/2 pound mixed baby greens
 8 Medjool dates, pitted and chopped
 1 pink Lady apple, peeled, cored and diced
 1/2 cup pomegranate seeds

1. Slice the goat cheese into 8 equal portions. Place on broiler pan and spray each piece with olive oil spray. Roll the discs in panko crumbs so that they adhere to the cheese and place back on the pan. Refrigerate for 1/2 hour.

2. Make the vinaigrette: Combine the shallot, garlic, parsley, chives, grainy mustard and vinegar in a medium bowl and whisk until well blended. (Or place in a food processor fitted with the metal blade and process until well blended). Slowly pour the olive oil into the bowl, whisking continuously (or processing) until blended. Add cream or yogurt, salt and pepper and taste and adjust the seasonings.

3. Preheat the oven to 400 F. Combine the greens, dates, apple and pomegranate seeds in a large salad bowl.

4. Bake the cheese for about 5 to 7 minutes, or until the crumbs are nicely browned and the cheese is warmed through.

5. To serve, pour enough dressing over the salad to moisten and mix to combine. Place on serving plates and place a goat cheese disc on top. Drizzle with more vinaigrette if desired and serve.
