In Ron We Trust Catholic Education!

Voting is a right, often taken for granted. Voting is also a responsibility. This election, in reality is the hiring of an upper administrative position to monitor and direct the management of a corporation (Elk Island Catholic School Division) with an operating budget of $84 million. The Board has one employee to hire, supervise, evaluate, and direct – the Superintendent.

Voters have the responsibility to examine each candidate's resume to determine their qualifications, education, background, and ability required to receive reports from every area of operation which must be processed, analyzed, and synthesized to determine the quality of the results.

Provincial governments have eliminated school boards in all but five provinces in our country. Why? Governments believe elected school boards are not effective or efficient and lack the skills and abilities to do so.

School Boards can be effective for local governance because they provide direct local input into education policy and can be responsive to community needs. Local representation is essential but only if the right people are elected to do the work.

The future of school boards in Alberta is dependent on the elector's ability to "hire/vote" the right people to do the job.

Ron Baier is the right person with the right qualifications, successful experience to do the job. In Ron We Trust!!

- An exemplary 35-year award-winning, servant leader career in Catholic education as a teacher, principal and trustee.
- Recognized leader in Catholic education.
- Excellence in Catholic Education Award
- Chairman, Board of Directors Western Catholic Reporter
- Vice President and Conference Chair, Religious and Moral Education Council (Craigie Award)
- Master's Degree Curriculum and Administration.
- Active in parish ministries and community service.
- Alberta Education Attendance Board
- Represents all people equally while managing conflict in service of what is true, faithful and just.

BAIER, Ron

Morning Giggle

"Congratulations my boy!" said the groom's uncle.
"I'm sure you'll look back and remember today as the happiest day of your life."

"But I'm not getting married until tomorrow." Protested his nephew.

"I know," replied the uncle, "that's exactly what I mean."

*"We get no choice.
If we love, we grieve."*

Thomas Lynch

When someone close to us passes, the confusion and mixed emotions we feel can often become overwhelming. However, it is important to recognize that there is no standard way of experiencing loss and no right way to grieve.

"There are things that we don't want to happen but have to accept, things we don't want to know but have to learn, and people we can't live without but have to let go."

Author Unknown

Grief can manifest itself in a range of emotions:

Shock, anger, guilt, despair, numbness. It is important to be kind to yourself and give yourself the time and care that you need to transition through the grieving process.

Coping with grief: recognize your emotions, lean on support from family and friends, talk about it, get additional help if needed, and give yourself time.
