Morning Giggle

Morris called his travel agency, and he was furious about a Florida package he booked. The travel agent asked what was wrong with the vacation in Orlando. Morris said he paid for a suite on the top floor expecting an ocean-view room.

The travel agent tried to explain that is not possible, since Orlando is in the middle of the state. Morris replied, "Don't lie to me. I looked on the map, and Florida is a very thin state."

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

You might be feeling noticeably tired or rundown. Take it as an opportunity to delegate responsibilities or ask for help.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

You could hit a goal today or be well on your way to reaching one. Keep up the good work!

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Your talent may bring you recognition or a prestigious opportunity. Claim your place in the spotlight.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

It's time to challenge and release any beliefs about yourself or the world that are holding you back.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Writing or talking about what you're feeling can be a useful way to understand and defuse your fears.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

If you've been avoiding a conversation about money, it will be tough to avoid it any longer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

An issue concerning your wellness or responsibilities might be revealed, and it may push you to reevaluate what's actually a priority and what's not.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

A friend's behavior might leave you feeling upset. Talk it out rather than suffering in silence.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Today is useful for marketing yourself or your business. Word will travel fast.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

It could be beneficial for you to seek out helpful advice concerning your finances. On another note, a money-making opportunity might arrive.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You strive to break the mold in all that you do. Going against the grain makes you happy because you're not interested in being like everyone else. While you are relationship-oriented, the best relationships for you are those that support your autonomy and authenticity. Of course, you give people the space to be their full selves with you. Because you're so creative, you may end up being a trendsetter among your peers, even when you aren't really trying. This year, you'll find creative inspiration in abundance, which could lead to exciting experiences.

Vegetable pearl couscous is an adaptable side dish

Diane Rossen Worthington

When you need a side dish that works with simple or spicy entrees, try this one. This recipe is a keeper and so Seriously Simple to make, you'll probably find it in your weekly rotation of trusted recipes.

Pearl couscous, sometimes called Israeli couscous or "ptitim" in Israel is baked semolina or wheat pasta. It is larger than regular tiny couscous and tastes great sauteed and lightly browned. The couscous is mild with a delightfully nutty texture on its own, so it's best to add some vegetables, nuts or other flavorings to spice up the little pearls. They resemble barley, but have a decidedly different flavor.

This simple side pasta is very adaptable. If you are in a big hurry, go for frozen petit pois instead of the carrots and zucchini, since the peas are a quick and tasty last-minute addition. You can also make this into a salad with the addition of diced tomatoes, tiny mozzarella balls and finely chopped basil. A mustard citrus vinaigrette dressing would bring all the flavors together. Whether you serve this as a hot side dish to grilled or braised entrees or create your own chilled couscous salad, I know you and your guests will enjoy it.

Vegetable Pearl Couscous (Serves 6)

2 tablespoons olive oil
1 leek, white and light green part only, cleaned and finely chopped
1 small carrot, peeled and finely diced
1 small zucchini, finely diced
2 1/2 cups Israeli couscous
Salt and freshly ground black pepper
2 cups hot water or chicken or vegetable broth
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh parsley
2 tablespoons freshly grated Parmesan cheese, optional

1. In a medium saucepan over medium heat, heat the oil. Add the leek, and saute for 5 to 7 minutes or until lightly browned and caramelized. Add the carrot and zucchini, and continue to stir for 2 minutes or until slightly softened. Turn up the heat to high and add the couscous. Brown the couscous for about 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper.

2. Add the hot water or broth to the couscous, stir with a fork, and bring to a boil. Cover and reduce the heat to medium-low. Let the couscous simmer for about 10 minutes, cooking until all the liquid has been absorbed and the couscous is tender.

3. Add the parsley, and optional Parmesan; blend them in with a large fork. Taste for seasoning and serve immediately.

Recipe note: This dish can be prepared up to two hours ahead and kept at room temperature. Reheat carefully in the top part of a double boiler over medium heat for 10 minutes.

With Ron we Trust Catholic Education!

Voting is a right, often taken for granted. Voting is also a responsibility. This election, in reality is the hiring of an upper administrative position to monitor and direct the management of a corporation (Elk Island Catholic School Division) with an operating budget of $84 million. The Board has one employee to hire, supervise, evaluate, and direct – the Superintendent.

Voters have the responsibility to examine each candidate's resume to determine their qualifications, education, background, and ability required to receive reports from every area of operation which must be processed, analyzed, and synthesized to determine the quality of the results.

Provincial governments have eliminated school boards in all but five provinces in our country. Why? Governments believe elected school boards are not effective or efficient and lack the skills and abilities to do so.

School Boards can be effective for local governance because they provide direct local input into education policy and can be responsive to community needs. Local representation is essential but only if the right people are elected to do the work.

The future of school boards in Alberta is dependent on the elector's ability to "hire/vote" the right people to do the job.

Ron Baier is the right person with the right qualifications, successful experience to do the job.
In Ron We Trust!!

PREPLANNING A FUNERAL WITH WEBER FUNERAL HOME

To begin the process of preplanning we invite you to meet with our professional funeral directors by scheduling an appointment at our office or we can come to you at your home. We start each preplan with listening to your wishes and then we guide you with detailed information. We explain processes and procedures that happen at the time of death and offer advice for how to move forward. As part of the preplan, we talk about all the costs involved and record everything in detail for you file. By having valuable information recorded and in place ahead of time you are alleviating your family from having to make difficult decisions in the moment when they are experiencing the emotions of grief and loss.

We recognize that things in life can change. We pride ourselves in our professionalism and will easily transfer arrangements from our funeral home to another service provider. In some cases people have made preplanned and prepaid funeral arrangements with other funeral homes and may want to change providers. Weber Funeral Home will facilitate the transfer of preplans and prepaid contracts from other funeral service providers to Weber Funeral Home.

Some of the feedback we receive from families when the funeral has been prearranged:

- "We are so glad that mom and dad had their arrangements planned ahead of time, we would have been lost with out it."
- "I can't believe how easy this was, I should plan my arrangements for my family too."
- "We were overwhelmed with where to begin, having this prearrangement gave us comfort in knowing dad gave us his guidance on what to do."

Our experience as funeral directors has lead us to believe that prearranging your funeral is a gift to your family. For more information about how prepaid funerals or to discuss preplanning, please contact our office by calling 780-672-3131 to set an appointment. You are welcome to come to our office or we can schedule a time for us to come to your home. We also provide an online prearrangement form on our website or you can stop by our office for a free service guide.
